What is it like to be a professional MODEL?

It's a whole new world when you are a Patricia Stevens Model. As Linda Hazlett says: "Every assignment is a new stimulating challenge. Meeting new and interesting people. The thrill of having your picture published and getting paid $35.00 an hour. Or walking down a runway in a $10,000 outfit and all eyes are on you. I love it!"

Why don't you study to become a professional model? The demand for modeling services is at an all time high — and opportunities are great. You can take model training 2 evenings a week or Saturdays and not interfere with your present job or school.
