"INDEPENDENTS"!

VISIT HIGBEE'S

NEEDLEWORKS FOR A

FUN-DAY ON FEB. 15th

We're celebrating "The Independents" with the help of Seventeen magazine.

It's a free-spirited way of life. A new way of life. Come see how to be creative with do-it-yourself Needleworks kits of macrame, leathers, yarns, crazy appliques for jeans. And sample the gourmet goodies served by Higbee's

Teen Board all day long. All to music of The Pumphouse Gang, our trio from Parma and Rhodes high schools. See you Monday, Feb. 15th in Higbee's

Second Floor Downtown.

Here they all are, the 12 tracks that have ridden them to the top: "One," them to the top: "One,"
"Easy to Be Hard." "Mama Told Me." "Fir's Coming."
"Your Song," "Celebrate."
"One Man Band," "Out

"Woman," "Nobody,"
"Woman," "Don't Make Promises" and "Try a Little Tenderness."

George Harrison was the least publicized of the Beaties. Then when his LP came out, "All Things Must Pass," we were suddenly awakened to his taste and talent. His LP is a national No. 1.

Dennis Doherty was the

and Papas. Mama Cass and John Phillips have already had successful solo albums. Now Donetty is out with his "Watcha Gonna Do?" (Dun-hill) LP. Grade it B-

There are some real clickers here as well as clunkers. In a word the LP is uneven.

Standout is the title song. Catchy with good chorus work. CKLW is already on this cut.

This a country-flavored album. The group could have tried to recapture the M&P sound. Totheir credit, they didn't try. They do a fair job with a medley of the Lennon-McCartney "Here Comes the Sun" from "Ab-bey Road" and "The Two of Us" from the Beatles "Let It Be" album.
