Fat Albert and Weird Harold are coming and jim Ibotson, Jeff Hanna, Les Thompson, John McEuen and Jimmie Fadden will be with them.

Well, as you know, that means that Bill Cosby and the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band hit Music Hall Saturday, Feb. 27. There'll be two shows — 7:30 p.m. and 10 p.m.

Tickets — $4, $5 and $6 — are available at all Burrows Stores and the Convention Center Box Office here. WIXY and the Belkin Productions are co-sponsors.

The Nitty Gritty's "Mr. Bojangles" has been No. 2 on CKLW and 14 nationally. Cosby, the good-timer, just has another LP out.

And the last week of this month will be jumping. Tiny Tim comes to the Plato on Wed., Feb. 24, for a 9 and 11 p.m. show. And the Allman Brothers Band and comedian David Steinberg appear at the Case Western Reserve University Emerson Gym the following night at 8 p.m.

Tickets ($3.50, $3) for the Allman concert go on sale today at the CWRU Student Union and the University of Akron Student Center. You can get mail order ones by writing to 11111 Euclid Avenue, Cleveland 44106.

Four local rock groups — Laceywing, December's Children, Fleet and Henry Tree—give a benefit concert Tuesday, Feb. 22, at John Carroll University at 7. Proceeds will go to the university's WUJC-FM radio station. admission? $1.

A triple treat—progressive jazz, blues and rock—will be stirring when the Librium play at the Jug coffee house at Hope Lutheran Church, 2222 Taylor Road, Cleveland Heights, tomorrow night at 8. Cost? $1.

The Damnation will play tracks from their upcoming album tomorrow night at the Cyrus Eric West . . . They'll be at the Plato Monday night. Their previous concert there was cancelled.

The Fifth Day Anthem at the interfaith music program Monday noon in Higbee's Auditorium consists of David Kent, Gib Oviatt, Kent Murphy and Chuck Craig of Heights High and Lisa Bohn of Sacred Heart Academy

They say if you wait long enough, WIXY 1260 will come up with everything except a solid gold Mustang. Now they have a love scale which registers only when you say "I Love WIXY." Should your phone be called this weekend and you say the words with the right enthusiasm for a high scale reading, you could wind up with a pair of Hot Pants for Valentine's day. Loser gets "Love Story" or Englebert Humperdink's "Sweetheart" LP . . . You can also win a cherry pie in their George Washington voice contest today.

Billy Bass, WNCR-FM program director got two mentions in Action Tab last week, but unfortunately one was a miss. He's not at WMMS-FM. Sorry.
