

THE HAPPENING

JANE SCOTT

April 18 isn't only Sparks show night at Music Hall and National Artichoke Day in Santa Cruz, Calif. It's also Brian Auger and the Oblivion Express night at John Carroll University.

Tickets, $5 in advance, are available at the JCU Box Office, Ward's Folly on Coventry and all Cleveland Tux Stores. M-105 is co-sponsoring the trip.

Did you ever dream that Supertramp would make it to mad, merry Cleveland? This English group plays Adelbert Gym of Case Western Reserve University on Saturday, April 19, at 7:30 p.m. Chris DeBurgh will be their special guest.

Tickets, $3.50 in advance, are available at Belkin Production outlets—Ward's Folly, Cleveland Tux Shops and the Public Hall Box Office.

Supertramp's "Dreamer" is now 17 on Britain's top pop list after having hit the top. Their LP is "Crime of the Century," which takes in a lot of territory.

Rock 'n' roll or sock 'n' roll? Tasteless note of the week: The Kids' display of spitting and mock-socks on the Allen Theater stage Brian Auger flies in to John Carroll University with his Oblivion Express.

Auger, Supertramp scheduled

Monday night. Perhaps behind it is the same crazed crack for attention that makes the Gary Dees and Don Imuses of this world.

Remember "Oh, Happy Day"? This only sold 5 1/2 million copies. Now the group, the Edwin Hawkins Singers and Review, bring harmony and happiness to the Smiling Dog Monday through Saturday.

Richard (Groove) Holmes, funky-jazz organist, will share the stage, his fourth engagement there.

Ellen McIlwaine a Cleveland favorite, continues at the Dog through Sunday. British vocalist Roger Moon shines with her.

Keep Friday, April 25 free.

That's the night of the third Band Bonanza.

And three heavies—Circus, Sweetleaf and Jasper will beat it out.

The battle will be held on the West side, at St. Edward High School, 13500 Detroit Ave., Lakewood.

Calories for the Clinic—All profits from the food you eat at the Genesis 1:29 vegetarian restaurant, 12200 Euclid Ave., Tuesday from 6 to 11 p.m. will benefit the Free Clinic. You will even have music to munch by, provided by Vicki Chew, John Lestock and Gus Andexler, starting at 7 p.m.

High note at Case Western Reserve University on Saturday, April 12, will be folksinger Michael Cooney. Cooney was the big draw at the Mariposa Folk Festival.

The 9 p.m. concert will be held in Hatch Auditorium of the Baker Building, corner of Adelbert Rd. and Euclid Ave. Seating capacity is limited. You can get your tickets early Rocky River dance chance?

The old Hotel Westlake in Rocky River near the Rocky River Bridge could be the site for our newest dance chance.

Plans call for turning the ballroom into a several-level flower bower for dancing, and setting up a game room with a at the Euphoria Record Shop in the Student Union annex, 11111 Euclid Ave.

Tickets are $2 for those with student ID's, $1 for CWRU-commuters and $3 for us general public types.

Wet Willie will be co-hosting the Midnight Special next Friday, WKYC-TV, and Bonnie Bramlett will be one of the stars.

"Studio B" will be the name for the new disco at the Picadilly, due to open soon. Management there has purchased $6,000 worth of sound equipment for the room.

Incidentally, the Belkin Production ticket stub necessary to give you in half price at the Penthouse must be from that same night's concert. No hanging on to your old Davie Bowie Dynamite play at the Penthouse tonight and R.M.A. tomorrow night.

A battle of the bands, a sock hop and a dance contest. These will be the triple treat at the Geauga County Maple Festival today at 6 p.m. and Don Allen, WXEN, is emceeding them all.

The festivities start at Chardon High School. Admission will be $1. Guests afterwards will be artists Tom Hinnie and Erroll Gaye and the Imaginations.

Could it be a trend, like the first Davy Crockett cap or the first platform sole? Jim Mauk of the Agora is wearing his National Honor Society pin. Incidentally, Jim was the best chess player at Nordonia High and organized the biggest bowling league in Summit County.

Good vibes. The Beach Boys' "Good Vibrations" is leading in WLYT's 1,000 greatest hits of all time contest. You still have time to submit your three favorites.

Did you know that Junior Achievement has a radio company along with those clothes hanger and battery-making groups?

This one is called Young Generation. And that's the name of its show Saturdays from 9 a.m. to noon on WGCL.

Tomorrow's show will feature Kevin Boyle on consumerism and the feature album will be "Jesus Christ, Superstar."

Erroll Dengler, 17, Eastlake North High, is the host and moderator.

Michael Cooney, one-man folk festival, plays CWRU April 12.
