Have Heart. The Mushroom Records group has been added to the Elvin Bishop show Thursday, June 24, at the Allen.

The band is fronted by two girls, Nancy and Ann Wilson. It's single, "Crazy on You," is No. 35 on Billboard's Hot 100. "Like Fleetwood Mac gone astray," says Jim Marchyshyn of Belkin Productions.

Wild Cherry got a fine reaction at the Agora Monday night. Kind of a cross between Sly and the Average White Band.

Jazz jottings . . . the Agora may set up a jazz series there on Tuesday nights.

Here is the up-to-date Agora agenda: Al Kooper and the L. A. Jets Monday.

Jerry Jeff Walker (first appearance in this area) and Ellen Mellwaine, June 21.

The Michael Stanley Band and Moxy, the latter produced by Aerosmith's Jack Douglas, June 28.

Journey, with an opener to be announced, July 5.

On the rhythm roster at the Genesis Restaurant, 12200 Euclid Ave., Tuesday from 7 to 11 p.m. will be Bill Passco and Michael Spiro. This will be the monthly Free Clinic benefit night.

Jerry Jeff Walker will play the Agora June 21.

Tracy hit a sound note

Just a quick note to say that we found that article by Tracy Brown very interesting. Very mature chap! We hope to catch his act next time through.

Sounds like Cleveland musicians are really getting it together. Don't give up.

Two restaurants unaffiliated

Re: Your restaurant review of Friday, April 30, 1976, and the relationship between Lanning's West and Lanning's in Bath. We at Lanning's in Bath feel that it is imperative that we set the record straight at this time. First of all, there is absolutely no affiliation between the two restaurants. Further, the owners are in no way related, as was reported in your recent column.

As a result of your article, we have been swamped with calls wanting to know why we have made certain changes. While it is true that Lanning's West has changed its format, we at Lanning's in Bath have not made any such changes in our menu.

Lanning's in Bath

Delores Caldwell, who owns Lanning's West with husband Bill, points out that she and her brother, Frank Barnett, originally opened the original Lanning's in Bath.

It was sold to Sue and Jess Cecil. Barnett has since opened a Lanning's in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.
