

Sugar your potato salad and hamburger

Hope?" Kingman asked . . . "No," the man said, "I made up the invitations—so I sent myself one."

THE LATE DINTY MOORE astonished me years ago when he said he always put sugar in the hamburgers he served at his famous restaurant.

Now I find that Luchow's, where so many of the Glamour Set meets, especially on Sunday night, has hot potato salad with bacon which is also sweetened with sugar—but only a teaspoon.

In my new passion for All-American cooking, I've found this latter dish is something not known to everybody. So for all you amateur chefs who'd like to be as good a cook as my Beautiful Wife, here's Jan Mitchell's own recipe:

"1 pound potatoes; 6 slices bacon, diced; 1 medium-size onion, diced; 1/2 cup vinegar; 1/2 cup stock or bouillon; 1 teaspoon salt; 1/4 teaspoon pepper; 1 teaspoon sugar; 1 egg yolk, beaten.

Teddy Kennedy "very good looking"

"Scrub potatoes; rinse. Boil in jackets; let cool. Peel and cut in 1/4-inch slices. Cook bacon in hot pan until crisp. Add onion; stir and cook until transparent. Add vinegar, stock or bouillon, and seasonings. Stir; let come to a boil. Stir in egg; remove from heat and pour over potatoes. Serves 2 to 4."

And speaking of All-American Cooking, Irv Shapiro of the Aku-Aku Room at the Town House Motel, Toledo, flashes me:

"We have the only Polynesian Room in the U.S.A. that serves Chinese food with bagels."

SPOTTING TEDDY Kennedy at the Diamond Ball at the Plaza, Monique Van Vooren said, "Hello! I'm glad to see you again. You're very good-looking." She had exactly the same speech for Mayor Lindsay

... Robert Merrill says the opera-goers who boo performers "should be thrown out bodily" and he foresees the time when audiences at B'way shows, now very polite and inclined to do excessive "bravos," will turn to "boos" instead. Merrill says this without prejudice, as he hasn't been booed at the Met (In Europe, yes!).

AL MARTINO, opening at the Copacabana (remember "Spanish Eyes," "I Love You Because," "Here in My Heart" and "A Painted, Tainted Rose") introduced me to his bride, Judy Stillwell of Zanesville, O., an airline stewardess whom he met flying to Cincinnati. The Copa crowd loved Al and also Comedian Jeremy Vernon. Martino has a home in Beverly Hills in the flood district. "I always wanted a sunken living room," he said, "but this is silly."

BIG DADDY ONASSIS' yacht has a tentative reservation at the Coral Harbour Beach Club marina, Nassau, next month. Is this a battle with Paradise Island which reported a month ago that the Christina was heading there?

CBS claims Glen Campbell's ratings on his first show "went through the roof" and that he'll be an enormous hit even though he got a couple of unfavorable reviews.

JACKIE GLEASON'S winding up his TV taping and taking off on several weeks cruise—his TV work season's over... Lou Monte and Bonnie Bell, appearing at the Brooklyn 802 Club, say the generation gap is explained in a few words: "Pot roast to roast pot."

REX HARRISON gave his wife Rachel Roberts a 5G lynx coat when he finished making "The Staircase" with Richard Burton... Comedienne Fannie Flag, who's made many TV appearances imitating Lady Bird, says she'd like to impersonate Pat Nixon, "but I haven't heard her say anything"... Carlo Ponti, at a party for retiring MGM exec Emery Austin, apologized—for not having photos of his infant son... The Academy Awards committee asked Barbra Streisand to sing "Funny Girl" at the Oscar affair.

JACK VALENTI, ex-aide to LBJ, says President Nixon "has done extraordinarily well—the new President has done everything I'd have recommended to the old President." Valenti's contract as Prez of the Motion Picture Ass'n. runs till '74. Valenti who said he slept a little better knowing LBJ was in the White House, says, "Now I just take a little Second."
