McDaniel Hurls Four Scoreless Relief Innings;

St. Louis Scores Three Unearned Runs

ST. LOUIS, June 10 (AP)-Lindy McDaniel pitched four scoreless relief innings and the St. Louis Cardinals benefited from three uncarned runs as they defeated the Milwaukee Braves tonight, 5-2.

The loss whittled the Braves' runs by Hank Aaron in the and I first inning and Del Crandall MILW. in the second, shortstop relix will Mantilla's boot of Alex Grammas' grounder opened the gates for the Cardinals in the fifth.

With one out, Manager Solly Hemus sent Grammas to third with a pinch double. Grammas scored on Don Blasingame's infield out and Gino Cimoli and Bill White followed with dou-

National league lead to one bles to right to put St. Louis ahead, 3-2
